

Cleveland Architects

John Frank Jasienski

Birth/Established: November 12, 1885 Death/Dissolved: September 23, 1958

Biography:

John F. Jasienski (Jasinski) was listed as an architect and draftsman in Cleveland City Directories. He was American born of Polish born parents. B.S. in Civil Engineering from the Case School of Applied Science in Cleveland, Ohio, 1907. Member of the Tau Beta Pi engineering honor society. He worked mostly in the Slavic Village and St. Clair - Superior neighborhoods of Cleveland. He may have changed his name to Jennings prior to his death in 1958.

Building List

Structure	Date	Address	City	State	Statue
Convent for St. Stanislaus Church	1917	6615 Forman Avenue	Cleveland	OH	Demolished

Sources:

Cleveland City Directories